

Proven Tools for APICS Partner Success

C-BOX

The Collaboration Toolbox for APICS Partners

Where can you find best practices, templates, and guidelines for developing and maintaining a successful APICS chapter, district, and APICS associates? Look no further than C-BOX. The new and enhanced APICS volunteer microsite is here!

C-BOX provides shared resources and news for APICS partners to support delivery of APICS programs and services locally. Replacing the Volunteer Resources section of the APICS Web site, C-BOX features enhanced functionality such as improved searching and organization, along with new and updated content and an ongoing commitment to refresh the site with new content and capabilities.

What can C-BOX help you do?

Deliver APICS Education

Visit Certification and Education for group testing, courseware information, member count reports, conference proceedings, and participant surveys within each program area.

Manage Your Chapter, District, or APICS Organization

Visit Management Tools for leadership handbooks and Volunteer Leadership Workshop training content.

Visit Governance for APICS Bylaw amendments, board meeting minutes, and handbooks.

Visit Management Tools for Chapter Benchmarking and Reporting (C-BAR), Chapter Minimum Standards (CMS), My Chapter Database Management Tool, APICS Marketing and Communication, Leadership Central e-newsletter, and forms.

Market APICS

Visit Membership, Certification, and Education to find Marketing Tool Kits that contain templates, sample letters, advertisements, presentations, and guidelines for promoting membership, certification, and education.

Recognize and Contribute

Visit the APICS Educational and Research Foundation for applications and forms to support student programs and research.

Visit Recognition Programs for applications and tools for the Chapter Incentive Program and Voluntary Service Awards.
